FUTURES LATES

SEXUALITY

27 JUNE 2018

The Science Museum will be collaborating with Pride in London for the next Lates to bring you an LGBTQ+ inspired evening featuring live performance, talks, music, and much more. Join our Drag Kings and Queens around the piano, in a make-up masterclass and join in the drag race! Test your skills in our genital drawing competition, and find out about Polari in our Literary Salon and much more.

FUTURE EVENTS

BLACK PANTHER + PANEL DISCUSSION

23 JUNE 2018

TICKETS – £5 ADULT, £3 CONCESSION

Join us at the Science Museum IMAX on 23 July to celebrate International Women in Engineering Day and the Year of Engineering 2018 with a special screening of Marvel's record-breaking blockbuster film, Black Panther.

Set in the mysterious African Republic of Wakanda, the film introduces a new Marvel character – engineering whizz Shuri, aka Princess of Wakanda.

Joining us on the evening will be some real world female engineering superheroes discussing how close real-life tech is to the world of Marvel – and how big screen representation can influence career choice.

PRIDE VARIETY SHOW

27 JUNE 2018

19.30-20.30

TICKETS – £6 EARLY BIRD, £8 AFTER

The legendary Mizz Kimberley, plus special guests (to be announced soon), come together to perform a one-off Pride in London variety show exclusively for the Science Museum's Sexuality Lates.

With energising performances by some of the most talented and beloved acts from within the LGBT community, you can expect to be wowed by this special event in the IMAX Theatre, hosted by the one and only cabaret sensation and Pride in London drag royalty Michael 'twaits.

SEXUALITY LATES AFTERPARTY

27 JUNE 2018

22.00-23.45

TICKETS – £6 EARLY BIRD, £8 AFTER

The Science Museum and Pride in London combine forces to host the first ever Lates Afterparty.

This is your chance to carry on the party with first-class DJs Jay Jay Revlon and Michelle Manetti.

Jay Jay, co-founder of English Breakfast London and father of the Kiki House of Tea, and Michelle, one of London's most established DJs on the East London underground queer scene, together promise to get you onto the dance floor... you don't want to miss out!
