BLACK SABBATH

HOME

Hello I noticed your article in the Evening Mail about midland groups. And because of my interest in heavy metal and having seen Black Sabbath, I was interested to find my wifes uncle Maurice was a friend of Ozzie Osbourne in the sixties, they went out drinking one night and Ozzie got drunk, Maurice called and paid for his taxi home, the next night Ozzie turned up at the local with a Kinks album. He gave this album to Maurice as pay back, the last time Maurice saw Ozzie he was sitting on the steps of a pub called the Witton Arms in Aston, he was wearing only one shoe, he said he was waiting for the other shoe to be repaired over the road at the menders. Uncle Maurice was in hospital waiting for an operation, he was watching the television when there was a documentary on Ozzie Osbourne about his life, he was asked "what was the first record you ever bought?", Ozzie said it was the Kinks, but he could not remember what had happened to it., Maurice has Ozzies first record, infact Ozzie had scratched his initials onto it, Maurice would like to give the record back to Ozzie, all first records have sentimental value dont they?

OXFORD WORLD'S CLASSICS

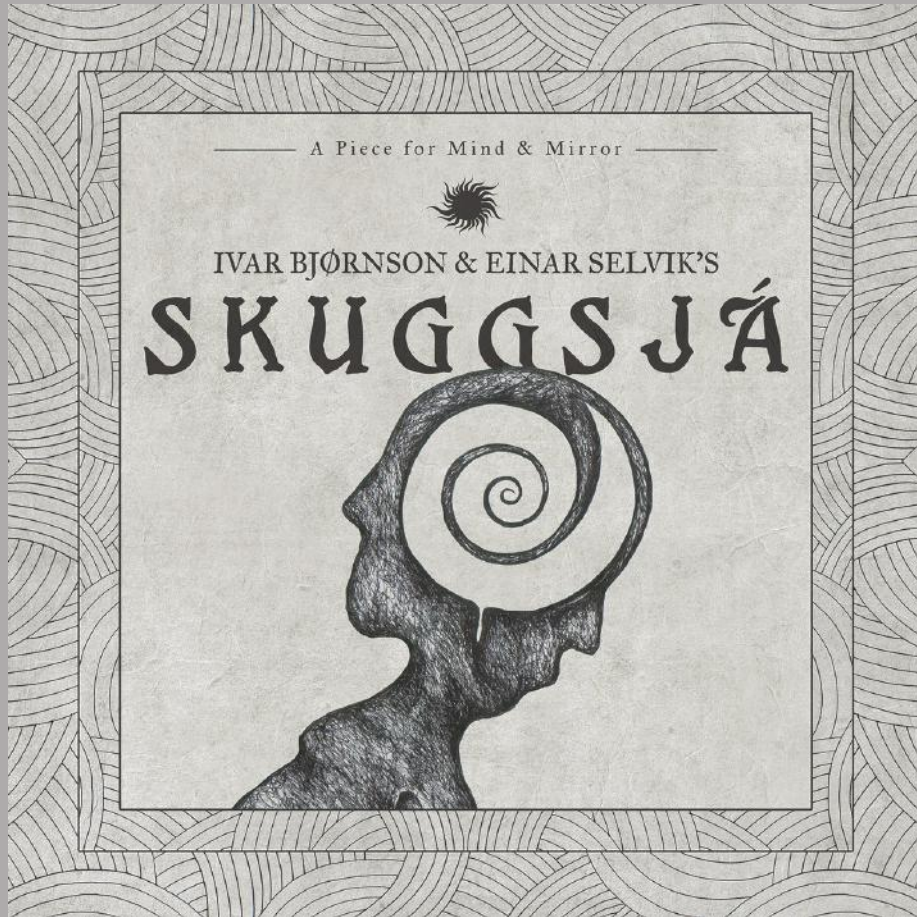

Handwritten musical score for a 16-measure piece, likely a Minuet. The score is written on a single system with five staves. The notation includes various musical symbols such as clefs, notes, rests, and bar lines. The piece is marked with a 'C' time signature and a '16' measure count. The handwriting is in a historical style, possibly from the 18th or 19th century.
