

THE VISUAL AND CRITICAL REPRESENTATION IN AN AGE OF IMPACT

How do we engage with the politics of representation in an increasingly accelerated, regulated, metrics-driven, and marketised academic environment?

6th March 2020 9:15 - 5:30

GS4, The Faculty of Education, University of Cambridge

Opening Talk - Mark Carrigan

'Understanding the Challenges of Representation in Research
Dissemination within the Neoliberal University'

Panel - Tunde Alabi-Hundeyin II, Kalifa Damani, Shreepali Patel

'Learning from other sectors: Competing Aims and Goals in Representation'

Zine Making Workshop with Soofiya

'Resisting Managerialism: Collaborative Dissemination'

Interactive Workshop with The Photography Ethics Centre

'The 'Visual' in Research'

Talk and Discussion with The Surviving Society Podcast

'Reframing Research for the 'Public''

Sign up via Eventbrite

Contact: info@politicsofrepresentation.org

<https://politicsofrepresentationcollective.org/events-and-workshops>

Organised by The Politics of Representation Collective, funded by The Sociological Review and The Faculty of Education, University of Cambridge

