

An Illustrated talk by Alison Knowles

3rd April 2009 at 3:00pm

Club Room, The October Gallery, 24 Old Gloucester Street, London WC1N 3AL

Alison Knowles is one of America's foremost interdisciplinary artists, part of an extraordinary generation of moving image, poetics and performance artists whose work has been at the forefront of re-imagining the boundaries between art, performance and everyday life. These include Yoko Ono, Yvonne Rainer, Robert Morris, James Tenney, Dick Higgins, George Maciunas, Vito Acconci, Allen Kaprow, George Brecht, Jackson Mac Low, Carolee Schneemann, Eleanor Antin and Joan Jonas among many others involved in and around the Fluxus group.

As part of her residency at ICFAR she will be talking about her performances, her art practice and her work with FLUXUS.

Alison Knowles' residency with ICFAR is part of a series of events and talks curated in collaboration with ICFAR's Leverhulme Professor Bonnie Marranca. These include a one day seminar with Meredith Monk on April 27th and a curated conversation with professor Marranca on May 6th. For further information please contact Chris Ralls.

Places are VERY limited: please contact Chris Ralls c.ralls@csm.arts.ac.uk to book a space.
