Royal Academy of Arts | GSK Contemporary

AWARE ART FASHION IDENTITY

Events and activities

Free Salons

January 2011; sketch at the RA; 6 Burlington Gardens, 5–6pm

Supported by

BASTYAN

Cake and conversation feature at these salons, where the audience joins practitioners from the realms of art, fashion, sociology, performance, journalism, and fashion image-making to explore themes provoked by GSK Contemporary - Aware, and to discuss the ways in which fashion and art are presented, consumed, understood, respected, or reviled. Participants will include Susie Bubble, Grayson Perry, Yinka Shonibare and Helen Storey.

Forthcoming salons (booking essential):

17 January 2011 The Artist's Robe: Adornment and Identity FULLY BOOKED
(Grayson Perry, Professor Reina Lewis, Dr. Emma Tarlo)
* Read the blog report on this salon

18 January 2011 Storytellers of Fashion FULLY BOOKED
(Susie Bubble, Dr. Agnès Rocamora, Hattie Spice, Perry Curties)

19 January 2011: When Clothes Speak: The Fabric of Our Heritage
(Yinka Shonibare, Carol Tulloch, Freddie Robins, Dr. Jonathan Faiers) FULLY BOOKED

20 January 2011 Staging Fashion/The Fashion Stage FULLY BOOKED
(The Broken Hearts, Anna Trevelyan, Grace Woodward)

21 January 2011 Future Forward: Forecasting Art, Fashion and Identity FULLY BOOKED