Curated by the Acts Re-Acts Creative Team:
Simon Betts, Jane Collins, Peter Farley, Lois Rowe

A festival of performance investigating how re-thinking space creates new relational possibilities between performer and audience; including residencies, artist talks, seminars, films and installations from across theatre and fine art.

At the opening event, Marvin Gaye Chetwynd, Practitioner in Residence, will facilitate an event with MA Digital Theatre students in the Theatre, and Douglas O'Connell will present an interactive installation in the Gallery.

Performances and residency outcomes will take place on Tuesdays and Wednesdays throughout the festival.
